

Notes from the Black Women's History Conference 6th Reunion Breakfast Meeting
April 30 2018

Business that was discussed included

1. A possible change in venue – to the Rose of Sharon Church in Plainfield - for the Reunion Breakfast was brought up because of the possible unavailability of our current home at the United Church.
2. We also discussed who would cater the breakfast this year, as well as the agenda for the breakfast.
3. There was a Discussion about current members paying dues, so that we have money available for the Reunion breakfast expenses before hand. A possible Reunion Breakfast member discount idea was also tossed around, but was not put into effect. Amount of the Dues to be further discussed and then finalized.
4. The Location of the BWHC organization funds were discussed. Currently, the funds are in a checking account at a national bank; however, there are monthly fees associated with the account. A suggestion was made to move the funds into an account at a credit union, because credit union accounts generally do not have monthly fees associated with them. Diane Pearson suggested a credit union, and Melanie said she would look further into having the account moved to a conveniently located credit union.
5. The Black Women's History Conference has a new executive body:

Diane Pearson and Diane Rasbury are now the Co- Chairwomen
Melanie Shane is the treasurer
Karen Riley is the secretary and co-founder Willa Cofield is now Chairwoman Emeritus and has moved to a more Advisory leadership role – We thank her for all f the tremendous work she has done over the years!
6. Our meeting ended with us pulling names, and saying something wonderful about the person who's name you got
7. The delicious food for our meeting was provided by Willa Cofield and Melanie Shane (Melanie's homemade egg salad and tuna salad – YUM!)

Please note that there is some information missing from these meeting notes and that I have attempted to recreate them from memory because I got there late and I also lost the original meeting notes- kr
